

Minutes of the
Southeast Interactive Long Distance Learning Consortium
Wednesday, August 6, 2014

Due to lack of a quorum, an unofficial meeting of the Southeast Interactive Long Distance Learning Consortium was held on Wednesday, August 6, 2014 at Valentinos in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Members present were: Leeann Haisch, Alcester-Hudson School District; Kevin Coles, Britton-Hecla School District; Jason Selchert, SILDL Coordinator/Gayville-Volin School District; Dean Christensen, Deuel School District; Collin Knudson, Tea Area School District; Scott Klaudt and Hector Serna, Willow Lake School District. Also present were Bonnie Overweg, Dakota Academic; and Cheryl Johnson, Southeast Area Cooperative.

The final financial report for 2013-2014 and the 2014-2015 financial report as prepared by the Business Manager were reviewed

Bonnie Overweg reported that e-rate changes have been approved, but not confirmed. Proposed changes would occur over the next five years. Proposed changes and items eligible for e-rate were discussed.

Jason Selchert reported on the following:

- First year of summer college classes
- Teacher training for anyone teaching or interested in teaching was held at Sioux Valley
- Information was distributed on students registered for his school and college classes
- Questions regarding college classes should be directed to Mount Marty, if no response contact Jason
- Make sure classrooms are up and functional. A test can be run, if necessary.
- Jason's cell phone is 605-661-6762 if you have problems with connections or need any other assistance
- High school classes will be on Blackboard and college classes will be on DDN.
- Protocol for classes

The next meeting will be held over the system. More information will be sent in September.
Meeting adjourned.

Dave Hutchison, President

Cheryl R. Johnson, Business Manager
